MORE THAN 100 FIRES — A stoop is all that remains of this building after race rioters started more than 100 fires in Negro Central Ward in Newark, largest New Jersey city.

Faithful Flock To Jerusalem

JERUSALEM (AP) — Thousands of Christian and Jewish pilgrims thronged Jerusalem today for Easter and Passover, which coincide this year.

Visitors jammed hotels, private homes and pensions. The overflow bedded down in schools and monasteries.

The Christians came for the annual Way of the Cross procession, tracing Christ's path to Calvary on the first Good Friday, and to celebrate the Resurrection on Sunday. The Jews came to pray at the Wailing Wall before sundown, start of the week-long festival of Passover commemorating the Exodus from Egypt.

Hebrew historians claimed that this is the first Passover in 3,258 years that a Jewish army has been stationed on the Red Sea, over which the Israelites escaped from Egypt. Israel's army also was there during the 1956 Suez war but pulled out of the Sinai Desert before Passover began.

Jewish housewives and cooks were busy preparing the seder feasts which at sundown inaugurate Passover. Seder was prepared for army units from the Syrian Golan Heights to the Suez Canal, with the biggest in the Sinai Desert, near Mt. Sinai.

This Easter is the second Christian holiday to attract large foreign crowds to Jerusalem since Israel ended Jordanian control of most of the Christian holy places in the war last June. Israeli troops were on guard against any Arab attempt to embarrass the government with disruptive violence. The first such holiday, Christmas, also was heavily guarded and there was no trouble.

The 4.3-mile, $3.8 million section will connect with the Interstate 70-U.S. 40 interchange at Harmony and extend to Ohio 54 near the Vienna north corporation line.

Preliminary Riot Loss Estimates Hit $45 Million

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Insurers put preliminary estimates of riot damage in Chicago at $10 million, in Baltimore at between $8 million and $10 million. Washington, D.C., officials estimate building damage alone at $13.3 million.

The number of homeless in Chicago is estimated at upward of 500. In Newark the figure is set at 600 and in the nation's capital a guess on the homeless is placed at between 1,200 and 1,400.

These were some of the preliminary figures available today as city officials, insurance adjusters and welfare workers began the months-long job of assembling a statistical picture of riot damage.

An Associated Press survey showed the pattern and extent of damage during the week-long wave of disorders following the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. seemed to vary from city to city.

Thus Chicago reported many businesses damaged were owned by Negroes although no breakdown was available. In Pittsburgh it appeared that mostly white-owned firms were firebombed and looted while many Negro-owned shops and bars with "soul brother" signs went untouched.

Woman Returned In Slaying Case

She pleaded innocent by reason of insanity, but was declared legally sane by hospital officials. No trial date has been set. The slaying occurred in a downtown Newark bar.

damage was available but the American Insurance Association and the General Adjustment Bureau said Thursday that insured losses could cost insurance companies $45 million or more.

The figure was "up to date as of Wednesday" and was "conservatively estimated," they said. The bureau said payout figures were "revised as new incidents took place and as a more exact evaluation of earlier incidents became possible."

Kansas City Has Uneasy Riot Calm

KANSAS CITY (AP)—An uneasy calm under a tightened curfew returned to Kansas City's Near East Side Thursday night following two nights of violence in which six persons were killed.

The near quiet, however, was punctuated by reports of sporadic sniping and isolated fires.

Besides the deaths that occurred during the previous nights of looting and fire bombings, 68 persons have been injured.

City officials were heartened Thursday night that the violence had waned. Mayor Irl Davis, who continued a 7 p. m. curfew, said, "It appears the number of law violations are greatly reduced. I think it is necessary to watch for the next several hours to see what the trend will be in restoring calm to the area."

Police Chief C. M. Kelley said the situation was much better than the two previous days.

Liquor stores and gasoline service stations were closed at 5 p.m., and by 7 o'clock city streets were virtually deserted.

Not long after dark, however, sniper shots were reported from the vicinity of the police and National Guard command post near the trouble zone.

Still No Site For Vietnam Peace Talks

Neutral Capital Proposal Hits Snag in Hanoi

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials say the lengthening hassle between Washington and Hanoi over a site for preliminary talks signals the kind of difficulties expected when and if peace negotiations get under way.

They noted it has been more than a week since the opposing sides publicly declared their readiness for contacts. And on the record, the maneuvering to date has involved only initial talks—rather than negotiations—aimed only at setting the stage for an actual peace conference.

The White House objected to Warsaw, which the North Vietnamese proposed Thursday, on the ground the capital of Communist Poland would not provide a neutral, fair setting.

The North Vietnamese have so far refused to accept U.S. site suggestions that are known to include Geneva, Switzerland; Rangoon, Burma; Vientiane, Laos; New Delhi, India; Jakarta, Indonesia; Vienna, Austria; Bern, Switzerland, and Bonn, West Germany.

The United States also objected to Hanoi's choice of Phnom Penh Cambodia, on grounds Washington no longer has diplomatic relations with the neutral nation, a situation raising communications and logistic problems.

Presidential press secretary George Christian said the U.S. government first learned of North Vietnam's proposal to meet at Warsaw from reading the Soviet news agency Tass—and only later received the Hanoi message through official diplomatic channels.

LBJ, Park To Confer In Honolulu

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House said today President Johnson will meet Wednesday in Honolulu with President Chung Hee Park of South Korea.

The announcement said Johnson would leave for Hawaii from his Texas ranch where he will spend the Easter Weekend.

The meeting with Park had been planned for last weekend, when Johnson was scheduled to fly to Honolulu to meet also with his advisers from Vietnam.

But that trip was canceled after violence erupted in the nation's capital and other U.S. cities following the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Instead, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. military commander in Vietnam, and Ellsworth Bunker, ambassador to South Vietnam, flew to Washington for conferences.

LBJ Inks Civil Rights Bill; Enforcement Group Set Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, voicing outrage at the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King and the violence that followed it, has signed an historic open-housing bill as a federal task force geared to enforce the new law.

It is the third landmark civil rights bill to become law since Johnson entered the White House.

"All America is outraged at the assassination" of King, the President told a crowd of civil rights leaders, Congress members and government leaders in the East Room of the White

Mayor Appoints Advisory Council

Circleville Mayor Richard Gerhardt has appointed a 19-member Advisory Council. The council's purpose, according to Gerhardt, is to give advice and recommendations on city problems and affairs and to provide representation from the community to the mayor and other city departments.

The council has already conducted two meetings. The first was for organizational purposes. During the most recent, topics were brought up for future discussion and the group began establishing priorities for Circleville's "Model Cities" planning grant.

A chairman will be selected from the membership and various subcommittees established to study specific topics.

The school administration charged Miss LeClair at a hearing Thursday with violating college regulations by giving a false address. The hearing was continued at her request to April 16 so that additional witnesses could be called.

The case has aroused a great interest at the college because Miss LeClair has admitted openly that she lied to school authorities in order to move out of her residence hall and into an apartment with her boyfriend.

The boyfriend was identified as Peter Behr, a junior at Columbia University.

Miss LeClair is from New Hampshire, but the college declined to give her home town.

The hearing is being conducted by a nine-member student faculty judicial committee.

Probe Slaying Of Lima Man

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—Police are still investigating the shotgun killing of William Dorsey, 20, who died Thursday afternoon of wounds police said he suffered in an argument with his father Wednesday morning.

Police said their report listed the father, Ernest Dorsey Jr., 40, as firing the shot after the son attacked him with a knife outside their Lima home. The father was released from custody Wednesday night and no charges have been filed in the case.

House Thursday. "And America is also outraged at the looting and burning that defiles our democracy."

"We just must put our shoulders together and put a stop to both," he said of the violence that takes the lives of men like King and of the slum riots.

The signing came one week after King's death in Memphis, Tenn. The President recalled that King was among the civil rights leaders who met with him two years ago to lay the groundwork for an open-housing bill.

Mrs. King was invited to attend the ceremony but could not arrange to be in Washington, White House aides said.

The new law will prohibit discrimination in 80 per cent of all housing sales and rentals by 1970, but much of it takes effect next Jan. 1.

The law also makes it a federal crime to use threats or violence to interfere with anyone seeking to exercise his civil rights and prohibits the crossing of state lines with intent to incite rioting.

The measure follows up the 1964 Civil Rights Act which Congress sent to Johnson eight months after the death of President John F. Kennedy, another assassination victim. That measure opened up all public accommodations to Negroes and strengthened their voting rights. In 1966 Johnson signed the Voting Rights Bill which outlawed literacy tests as a requirement for voting.

As Johnson was signing the new bill Thursday in a ceremony nationally telecast and broadcast, the Justice Department's Civil Rights Division was assigning a newly formed task force to assemble the government's enforcement program.

Los Angeles Kept Calm By New Group

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Los Angeles has stayed calm through the violence that has shaken many cities following the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Why?

The answer apparently lies in the quick response of Negro leaders and police, the lingering memory of Watts, 1965, and the progress made in race relations since that summer.

There was a sudden show of unity among moderate and militant forces in the Negro community.

Within 24 hours after King's death, a coalition of Negro leaders—the Black Operational Unit Committee—was formed. Its directors were leaders of about 40 Negro organizations and represented what they said were "extremists of both sides."

"There was a warmth and concern among them that I had not seen before," says the Rev. H. H. Brookins of the First AME church, a leader of the moderate wing.

Ron Karenga, chief of the militant Afro-American group, was a member, as were those whom Brookins called "the King kind of folks."

"As long as we find something in common to move on and do more on just that, the movement will keep up together," Karenga said.

Mayor Sam Yorty praised the committee. Victor H. Palmieri, deputy director of the President's Commission on Civil Disorders, said he thought the coalition kept things cool.

Besides the Negroes' own determined restraint, police work undoubtedly helped stem violence and crime. Police Chief Tom Reddin says statistics aren't in but that "the incidence of crime was down dramatically."

Pilot Injured In Plane Crash

WADSWORTH, Ohio (AP) — A 27-year-old Rittman pilot was injured early today when his light plane crashed in landing at Wadsworth airport. A passenger escaped with minor injuries.

Medina County deputies said the pilot, Jack Miracle, was taken to Wadsworth — Rittman Hospital and later transferred to Orrville Osteopathic Hospital for treatment of injuries.

The passenger, Frank Huff of Orrville, was treated and released at the Wadsworth hospital.

128 Enemy Dead Left On Perimeter

Fighting Ends Week-Long Lull In South Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. foot soldiers, artillery and dive bombers repulsed 400 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops who stormed an American bivouac today and drove to within a few feet of the GI's foxholes.

After five hours of close-quarter fighting in War Zone C 49 miles northwest of Saigon, Vietnamese and Viet Cong fled, leaving 128 of their dead and more than 50 weapons on the battlefield.

All of the enemy bodies were found inside or on the fringes of the American perimeter. AP photographer Al Chang reported from the battlefield that more bodies were probably farther out, victims of the massive air and artillery strikes.

Sixteen U.S. troops were killed and 47 wounded.

Chang said the fighting was at such close range that at one point the 25th Division infantrymen fixed their bayonets as their ammunition ran low. They didn't have to use them.

Two Americans were found dead inside their bunker. Around them were the bodies of eight Viet Cong, gunned down by the two Americans before they were killed.

A radio operator held out against 10 Viet Cong until a company commander, Lt. Richard J. Prairie of Kankakee, Ill., and three other infantrymen reinforced him. Prairie was awarded a Silver Star on the spot.

The heavy fighting broke a week-long lull in the Vietnam war and was the first major action reported in Operation Complete Victory, the biggest allied campaign of the war in which 100,000 troops are sweeping Saigon.

A battalion of 25th Division infantrymen on a reconnaissance mission had taken up defensive positions for the night in a clearing of a heavily wooded area.

Listening posts detected a heavy movement on the west side of the perimeter about 2:40 a. m. shortly after waves of Viet Cong threw themselves at the camp.

Heat Wave Heads East; West Cold

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Summerlike warmth crept over the eastern half of the country today, but a storm system riding along the Canadian border spilled cold weather, rain and snow flurries across the Northern Rockies.

Temperatures rocketed into the upper 80s through the Central Plains Thursday, melting decades-old records for the date in many communities. Sioux City, Iowa, and Grand Island, Neb., sweltered in record readings of 89.

The summery warmup was expected to sweep across most of the East by nightfall. Cold rain and snow chilled the Cascades and Northern Rockies and stockmen's warnings were in effect southward in Wyoming. Snow fell during the night in normally mild Seattle.

Forecasters indicated the colder weather would plunge into the Northern Plains by day's end. Showers dampened scattered portions of the Southwest from the deserts across the Southern Rockies to the high plains of Texas.

Temperatures remained in the 50s and 60s throughout the night in most of the Plains and Midwest. Chilliest readings prevailed in the Rockies and northern New England, ranging down to 24 at Concord, N. H.

Humphrey Ready To Enter Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Sure that their man will declare soon for the Democratic presidential nomination, backers of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey have organized United Democrats for Humphrey with former President Harry S. Truman as honorary chairman.

A score of public figures, including two senators and five members of the House, were named Thursday as sponsors. But the only two governors on the list later denied they had authorized use of their names.

They were Gov. William L. Guy of North Dakota and Gov. Buford Ellington of Tennessee. Humphrey, expected to jump into the race soon after Easter, said in Baton Rouge, La.,

Thursday night he stands on the record of the present administration and is "not going to retreat from it one bit."

"I do not intend to disavow either President Johnson or the Johnson-Humphrey administration," he said to the Louisiana AFL-CIO.

"I intend to stand up for the promises we have kept. I intend to take our message to the country—an affirmative, positive, hopeful message."

Besides Truman, founders of United Democrats for Humphrey include Sens. Fred R. Harris of Oklahoma and Walter F. Mondale of Minnesota, Mayors Ivan Allen Jr. of Atlanta and A. J. Cervenak of St. Louis, George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO; James A. Farley, former Democratic national chairman; assistant House majority leader Hale Boggs of Louisiana and four other House members.

Elsewhere on the political scene, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York said he is still available if the party wants him. And Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan, of California was showing signs of increased political activity.

Reagan aides said the governor who announced earlier this year he was all but cutting out national speeches, is scheduling several at which he will discuss "problems facing the country." Rockefeller was asked at a news conference in New York if, in view of his March 21 statement that he would not seek the nomination, he still wants to be president.

"If the party wants me," he replied, "the answer is yes."

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, stalling the Democratic nomination, advocated a guaranteed minimum income in a speech at Boston University.

The Minnesota also called for a federally subsidized health insurance program for the poor. The United States "has passed the point of no return with reference to domestic problems," he said.

McCarthy's rival, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, of New York, proposed a sweeping "national reconstruction" program at Lansing, Mich.

Two Americans were found dead inside their bunker. Around them were the bodies of eight Viet Cong, gunned down by the two Americans before they were killed.

A radio operator held out against 10 Viet Cong until a company commander, Lt. Richard J. Prairie of Kankakee, Ill., and three other infantrymen reinforced him. Prairie was awarded a Silver Star on the spot.

The heavy fighting broke a week-long lull in the Vietnam war and was the first major action reported in Operation Complete Victory, the biggest allied campaign of the war in which 100,000 troops are sweeping through 11 provinces around Saigon.

A battalion of 25th Division infantrymen on a reconnaissance mission had taken up defensive positions for the night in a clearing of a heavily wooded area.

Listening posts detected a heavy movement on the west side of the perimeter about 2:40 a. m. shortly after waves of Viet Cong threw themselves at the camp.

Heat Wave Heads East; West Cold

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Summerlike warmth crept over the eastern half of the country today, but a storm system riding along the Canadian border spilled cold weather, rain and snow flurries across the Northern Rockies.

Temperatures rocketed into the upper 80s through the Central Plains Thursday, melting decades-old records for the date in many communities. Sioux City, Iowa, and Grand Island, Neb., sweltered in record readings of 89.

The summery warmup was expected to sweep across most of the East by nightfall.

Cold rain and snow chilled the Cascades and Northern Rockies and stockmen's warnings were in effect southward in Wyoming. Snow fell during the night in normally mild Seattle.

Forecasters indicated the colder weather would plunge into the Northern Plains by day's end.

Showers dampened scattered portions of the Southwest from the deserts across the Southern Rockies to the high plains of Texas.

Temperatures remained in the 50s and 60s throughout the night in most of the Plains and Midwest. Chilliest readings prevailed in the Rockies and northern New England, ranging down to 24 at Concord, N. H.

Ansel Dresbach helps Leist and Keller and also does something interesting. He saves the junk that they remove from flat tires. It looks as if anything left on the road will run into a tire. He has multi shaped nails, wires, glass, etc. and even fish and turtle hooks. It's bad enough to catch an old tire while fishing but getting snagged on the highway is too much.

Probably some of you are wondering what to do with your old license plates. Actually there is a demand for them. Teacher Dick Wellington at Westfall, over the protests of Principal Mr. Massey, wants the students to wear them. Dick says it would be easier to get a head count in the cell blocks with numerals. I don't know where he gets that jargon. He still calls the basketball court an exercise yard. Mr. Massey also took a whip and rubber hose away from him. He still wants the plates though. If he isn't home just drop them in the yard.

The MYF will have an Easter breakfast after Sunrise Services Sunday morning for everyone. . . Also an Easter egg hunt for children ages 2 to 12.

George Hamman put his ever inventive mind to work last year developing a new feed mix for his chickens so they would lay colored easter eggs. He mixed up a batch of it and spread it out at night for the chickens to eat the next morning. It might have worked if the red-winged blackbirds and starlings hadn't got to it first. This year his is the only farm in the county with blue-winged pinkbirds and yellow starlings.

There will be a smorgasbord at Westfall the first week of May. This is just to warn you to cut down on your eating to save room.

Do you ever jump to conclusions when you see something? For example, picture the following scenes from this week in Williamsport with logical deductions: Milk can on McCafferty's porch . . . Pickup Order Withdrawn In King Murder Probe

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The FBI issued, then withdrew, a pickup order for Eric Starvo Galt, a Birmingham, Ala., white man as the wide-scale investigation of the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., entered its second week.

Federal agents refused to say why they were seeking Galt.

The bulletin distributed on the statewide police teletype network in Florida said Galt was driving a white Mustang. Witnesses in Memphis told investigators earlier they saw a man in a white Mustang drive away from the rooming house from which King was shot last Thursday night.

At about the same time the pickup order was sent in Florida, federal agents in Atlanta impounded a white Mustang that had been parked since last Friday at a public housing project near the Georgia state Capitol.

The message, withdrawn with the explanation that it was released by mistake, described Galt as a white male, 36 years old, about 5-foot-11 and 175 pounds with blue eyes and brown hair.

This roughly matched the description circulated by federal authorities the night of King's slaying.

Special Agent John Hanlong of the Miami FBI office, who withdrew the pickup order about four hours after it was issued, said, "I cannot comment," when asked for further details.

The Florida teletype message said Galt was last seen driving a white 1966 Mustang hardtop, Alabama license 1-38993. Birmingham police said this tag had been issued to Eric S. Galt, 2608 Highland Ave., Birmingham.

In Atlanta, the residents who first told police about the abandoned white Mustang said the car bore the same Alabama license as given out by the FBI and bore two stickers which said "Tourista." Earlier reports indicated the investigation had spread to Mexico.

White House Goof Bars Sen. Hart

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., who talked the new civil rights bill through the Senate, accidentally got short shrift when President Johnson signed the measure at a White House ceremony Thursday.

But the guard at the White House gate didn't have Hart's name on the list of those to be admitted.

Hart finally managed to get through the gate, but by that time the ceremony was over.

Army Had Plans All Made To Combat Washington Riot

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 14,000 troops called into the nation's capital to quell racial violence operated according to well-aid plans — plans their commander says have been made for every city with a potential for racial civil disorders strife.

Gen. Ralph E. Haines Jr., the Army's vice chief of staff who commands the troops in Washington, said the national contingency plans are known collectively as "Garden Plot." Washington's plan is called "Operation Cabin Guard."

The troops are still in this city although there hasn't been serious trouble since Saturday night, the third night of violence following the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in Memphis, Tenn.

Haines took newsmen on a tour Thursday of three bivouac areas for the troops.

Haines said that as early as last August, Army officers had walked Washington's streets, surveying the scene and getting acquainted with local officials and police officers they would have to work with in any riot emergency.

Haines said the Washington plan had been developed for several years and was revised after last summer's Detroit riot on the basis of Army experiences there.

Haines said that establishing contact with local officials and police and the advance planning are important in easing the dispatch of thousands of troops "into a strange city, especially if it's in flames."

Hundreds of fires and widespread looting had broken out when President Johnson ordered the troops into the capital last Friday.

"There's one of these plans for every city you can think of," Haines said.

White House GooF Bars Sen. Hart

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., who talked the new civil rights bill through the Senate, accidentally got short shrift when President Johnson signed the measure at a White House ceremony Thursday.

A chair in the front row of dignitaries had been reserved for Hart.

But the guard at the White House gate didn't have Hart's name on the list of those to be admitted. Hart finally managed to get through the gate, but by that time the ceremony was over.

Army Had Plans All Made To Combat Washington Riot

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 14,000 troops called into the nation's capital to quell racial violence operated according to well-ahead plans — plans their commander says have been made for every city with a potential for racial civil disorders strife.

Gen. Ralph E. Haines Jr., the Army's vice chief of staff who commands the troops in Washington, said the national contingency plans are known collectively as "Garden Plot." Washington's plan is called "Operation Cabin Guard."

The troops are still in this city although there hasn't been serious trouble since Saturday night, the third night of violence following the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in Memphis, Tenn.

Haines took newsmen on a tour Thursday of three bivouac areas for the troops. Haines said that as early as last August, Army officers had walked Washington's streets, surveying the scene and getting acquainted with local officials and police officers they would have to work with in any riot emergency.

Haines said the Washington plan had been developed for several years and was revised after last summer's Detroit riot on the basis of Army experiences there.

Haines said that establishing contact with local officials and police and the advance planning are important in easing the dispatch of thousands of troops "into a strange city, especially if it's in flames."

Hundreds of fires and widespread looting had broken out when President Johnson ordered the troops into the capital last Friday.

"There's one of these plans for every city you can think of," Haines said.

West German Student Leader Shot

BERLIN (AP)—New Left students attacked the headquarters of West Germany's largest publisher with Molotov cocktails and rocks today as their hero and leader, "Red Rudi" Dutschke, lay in critical condition from a would-be assassin's bullets.

Ten persons were arrested but later released after the outburst of violence that followed the shooting.

A 23-year-old man police said was Dutschke's assailant was also in critical condition after a one-hour gunfight with police. He was identified from his fingerprints as Joseph Bachmann, from Peine, in West Germany, but police said they had no other information on him.

Doctors gave Dutschke a chance to survive after they removed a bullet from his brain. The student firebrand was also hit in the right cheek and chest as he was getting on his bicycle late Thursday afternoon.

Dutschke was shot on the Kurfuerstendamm, West Berlin's main street, as he left the office of the radical student organization he heads.

Word of the attempted assassination spread quickly, and 3,000 to 5,000 students marched on the headquarters alongside the Berlin Wall of Axel Springer's publishing concern. The students charged that the assassination attempt was inspired by attacks in Springer's papers on Dutschke and other student leftists.

The mob set fire to the garage of the publishing house. Flames shot skyward as gasoline exploded inside, and about a dozen delivery trucks burned.

Top officials hurriedly sought to prevent student resentment against the government. West German Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger and West Berlin Mayor Klaus Schuetz sent telegrams to Dutschke's American wife, the former Gretchen Klotz of Chicago.

Dutschke, a 28-year-old philosophy student who favors sweaters and wears his black hair long and bushy, is the leader of the SDS, or Socialistic Student Federation. He fled from East Germany to escape army service and last year married Miss Klotz, a theology student.

The students have taken a strongly anti-American stance have held antiwar rallies and provoked confrontations with city authorities. Dutschke's main rallying cries were opposition to U.S. policy in Vietnam and reform of German universities.

Viet Red Paymaster Dead; U.S. Sergeant Finds Cash

By GEORGE McARTHUR
Associated Press Writer

DONG TAM, Vietnam (AP)—Snatching an Army payroll is hardly the way for a sergeant to win a medal — unless the payroll belongs to the enemy.

Slow-spoken Platoon Sgt. Lawrence Nine wasn't thinking about anything of the sort when he cut down a Viet Cong with a burst from his M16.

It was near the end of a hard day's slogging beneath a sweltering Mekong Delta sun. The 33-year-old marksman from Columbia, S.C., was content with bagging one of the elusive Viet Cong and capturing his companion.

"I went up to make sure he was dead and pick up his weapon," Nine says. "Then all this money fell out and I yelled 'We got a paymaster.' We bundled it back up and got out."

When Nine brought the money back to battalion headquarters the staff in the squad tent erupted like college boys after winning the big game. There were shouts and corny jokes and everybody gathered around the battered olive-drab field table where the money was dumped.

—neat bundles of notes adding up to 358,000 piasters, equivalent to more than $3,000.

Lt. Col. William T. Leggett, Rocky Mount, N.C., commander of the 2nd Battalion, 39th Infantry, 9th Division, happily jumped the radio network to brigade with the good news. The money would be heading back along with the prisoner and a stack of documents as soon as a helicopter arrived.

By nightfall the prisoner was being questioned and the brigade commander, Col. Henry Emerson of Milford, Pa., who won the name "The Gunfighter" during a previous tour in Vietnam, was cooking up an evening's skulduggery.

"Get 'em where it hurts," chorled the lanky, ex-airborne soldier who takes as much pleasure in outsmarting the Viet Cong as he does in outfighting them.

Group Disrupts Wessner Hearing

CINCINNATI (AP)—Noisy protests by sympathizers occurred again Thursday at the trial of James R. Wessner, charged with failure to report for induction into the Armed Forces.

U.S. District Judge David S. Porter ordered two persons from the court and locked the doors — a move similar to action taken by the court the day before.

Judge Porter has taken under advisement the first part of the trial—whether Wessner, a 24-year-old Blanchester native, was properly classified by the draft board.

A jury is scheduled to hear the charge of induction failure.

The documents showed the money was the payroll of the 54th Viet Cong main-force battalion, an outfit Emerson's men had been working on for weeks.

Before midnight, Emerson had a psychological warfare plane lazily circling above the Viet Cong's marshy hideouts.

"You're not going to get your pay this month," a Vietnamese voice boomed from the plane's powerful loud-speaker. "We killed your paymaster this afternoon."

Next day leaflets were prepared to spread the message and spread discontent.

"That's the kind of operation I like," beamed Emerson. "Something hard. Something those guys can understand."

Nine's commander put him in for a medal.

Supermarket Holdup Attempt Is Foiled

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—The robber put a paper sack on the check stand and told supermarket manager John Baker to fill it with money.

"Have you got a gun?" Baker asked. The man pulled out what Baker told police looked like a pellet pistol. Baker slugged the robber in the head and the man fled.

Baker, shaken by the holdup try, said what he was really mad about was the sack the robber left on the counter.

It was from a competitor.

Mayor Eugene Ruehlmann told newsmen that the original 1,400-member guard force had gradually been reduced since rioting subsided. He declined to give details.

Thursday, police charged a young Negro with inciting to riot in connection with the disorder which claimed two lives.

The man, Donald Page, worked as a community security guard in Avondale, the predominantly Negro area where most of the strife occurred.

It was the first time since passage last fall that the riot ordinance — which carries a maximum penalty of one year imprisonment and $5,000 fine — was invoked.

Officers said witnesses told them Page ran along Reading Road calling to bystanders to "get the white honky cops" and telling them a white policeman had shot a Negro woman. Authorities said earlier that the rumor touched off the rioting.

What actually happened, police said, was that a Negro man fatally shot his common-law wife during a scuffle with would-be looters at a jewelry store he was guarding.

A few lootings were reported late Thursday, and the only injury vaguely connected with riot control — was a policeman.

Reports showed that patrolman Marvin Boone, 30, accidentally shot himself in the right arm with a shotgun while bending over to drink from a water cooler at a traffic bureau headquarters.

He was listed in serious condition at General Hospital.

West German Student Leader Shot

BERLIN (AP)—New Left students attacked the headquarters of West Germany's largest publisher with Molotov cocktails and rocks today as their hero and leader, "Red Rudi" Dutschke, lay in critical condition from a would-be assassin's bullets.

Ten persons were arrested but later released after the outburst of violence that followed the shooting.

A 23-year-old man police said was Dutschke's assailant was also in critical condition after a one-hour gunfight with police. He was identified from his fingerprints as Joseph Bachmann, from Peine, in West Germany, but police said they had no other information on him.

Doctors gave Dutschke a chance to survive after they removed a bullet from his brain. The student firebrand was also hit in the right cheek and chest as he was getting on his bicycle late Thursday afternoon.

Dutschke was shot on the Kur-

fuerstendamm, West Berlin's main street, as he left the office of the radical student organization he heads.

Word of the attempted assassination spread quickly, and 3,000 to 5,000 students marched on the headquarters alongside the Berlin Wall of Axel Springer's publishing concern. The students charged that the assassination attempt was inspired by attacks in Springer's papers on Dutschke and other student leftists.

The mob set fire to the garage of the publishing house. Flames shot skyward as gasoline exploded inside, and about a dozen delivery trucks burned.

Top officials hurriedly sought to prevent student resentment against the government. West German Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger and West Berlin Mayor Klaus Schuetz sent telegrams to Dutschke's American wife, the former Gretchen Klotz of Chicago.

Dutschke, a 28-year-old philosophy student who favors sweaters and wears his black hair long and bushy, is the leader of the SDS, or Socialistic Student Federation. He fled from East Germany to escape army service and last year married Miss Klotz, a theology student.

The students have taken a strongly anti-American stance have held antiwar rallies and provoked confrontations with city authorities. Dutschke's main rallying cries were opposition to U.S. policy in Vietnam and reform of German universities.

Viet Red Paymaster Dead; U.S. Sergeant Finds Cash

By GEORGE McARTHUR
Associated Press Writer

DONG TAM, Vietnam (AP)—Snatching an Army payroll is hardly the way for a sergeant to win a medal — unless the payroll belongs to the enemy.

Slow-spoken Platoon Sgt. Lawrence Nine wasn't thinking about anything of the sort when he cut down a Viet Cong with a burst from his M16.

It was near the end of a hard day's slogging beneath a sweltering Mekong Delta sun. The 33-year-old marksman from Columbia, S.C., was content with bagging one of the elusive Viet Cong and capturing his companion.

"I went up to make sure he was dead and pick up his weapon," Nine says. "Then all this money fell out and I yelled 'We got a paymaster.' We bundled it back up and got out."

When Nine brought the money back to battalion headquarters the staff in the squad tent erupted like college boys after winning the big game. There were shouts and corny jokes and everybody gathered around the battered olive-drab field table where the money was dumped — neat bundles of notes adding up to 358,000 piasters, equivalent to more than $3,000.

Lt. Col. William T. Leggett, Rocky Mount, N.C., commander of the 2nd Battalion, 39th Infantry, 9th Division, happily jumped the radio network to brigade with the good news. The money would be heading back along with the prisoner and a stack of documents as soon as a helicopter arrived.

By nightfall the prisoner was being questioned and the brigade commander, Col. Henry Emerson of Milford, Pa., who won the name "The Gunfighter" during a previous tour in Vietnam, was cooking up an evening's skulduggery.

"Get 'em where it hurts," chortled the lanky, ex-airborne soldier who takes as much pleasure in outsmarting the Viet Cong as he does in outfighting them.

Group Disrupts Wessner Hearing

CINCINNATI (AP)—Noisy protests by sympathizers occurred again Thursday at the trial of James R. Wessner, charged with failure to report for induction into the Armed Forces.

U.S. District Judge David S. Porter ordered two persons from the court and locked the doors — a move similar to action taken by the court the day before.

Judge Porter has taken under advisement the first part of the trial—whether Wessner, a 24-year-old Blanchester native, was properly classified by the draft board.

A jury is scheduled to hear the charge of induction failure.

The documents showed the money was the payroll of the 514th Viet Cong main-force battalion, an outfit Emerson's men had been working on for weeks.

Before midnight, Emerson had a psychological warfare plane lazily circling above the Viet Cong's marshy hideouts.

"You're not going to get your pay this month," a Vietnamese voice boomed from the plane's powerful loud-speaker. "We killed your paymaster this afternoon."

Next day leaflets were prepared to spread the message and spread discontent.

"That's the kind of operation I like," beamed Emerson. "Something hard. Something those guys can understand."

Nine's commander put him in for a medal.

Supermarket Holdup Attempt Is Foiled

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—The robber put a paper sack on the check stand and told supermarket manager John Baker to fill it with money.

"Have you got a gun?" Baker asked. The man pulled out what Baker told police looked like a pellet pistol. Baker slugged the robber in the head and the man fled.

Baker, shaken by the holdup try, said what he was really mad about was the sack the robber left on the counter. It was from a competitor.

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavily burdened by taxes, and always faced with the prospect of more, Americans may take some solace in recent studies that show the same pattern prevails all over the industrialized world.

The trend to more taxes is strong. In the 10 years through 1966 the burden actually grew faster than the economy in every one of the world's largest industrial nations. And most of these economies were growing swiftly.

In Sweden, for example, 1967 taxes were less than 30 per cent of the nation's total output of goods and services. Nevertheless, this was the heaviest taxation of any nation. But what is it now? More than 40 per cent.

This same study, by the First National City Bank of New York, shows the United States and Canada have a tax percentage of 28.2 per cent of gross national product and growing.

Still, both countries are near the bottom of the list. Among other percentages are France 38.6, Norway 35.8, Netherlands 33.7, Australia 35.1, Germany 34.8, Denmark 31.6, United Kingdom 31.3, Belgium 31.1 and Italy 29.1.

Switzerland, with a percentage of 21.7, and Japan, at 19.3, have less taxation.

Nevertheless, the pain of taxes is perhaps felt more acutely in the United States. Taxes here are direct; the principal source of revenue is from personal and corporate incomes. In other industrialized nations the emphasis is on spending taxes.

Because the burden is heavily on incomes, an increase in the U.S. standard of living is generally accompanied by an increase in the amount that must be set aside for taxes.

Corporate income taxes in the United States are higher than in any other country. In 1966, U.S. corporate taxes equaled 4.6 per cent of the Gross National Product, compared with 2.3 per cent in Germany and 1.9 in France.

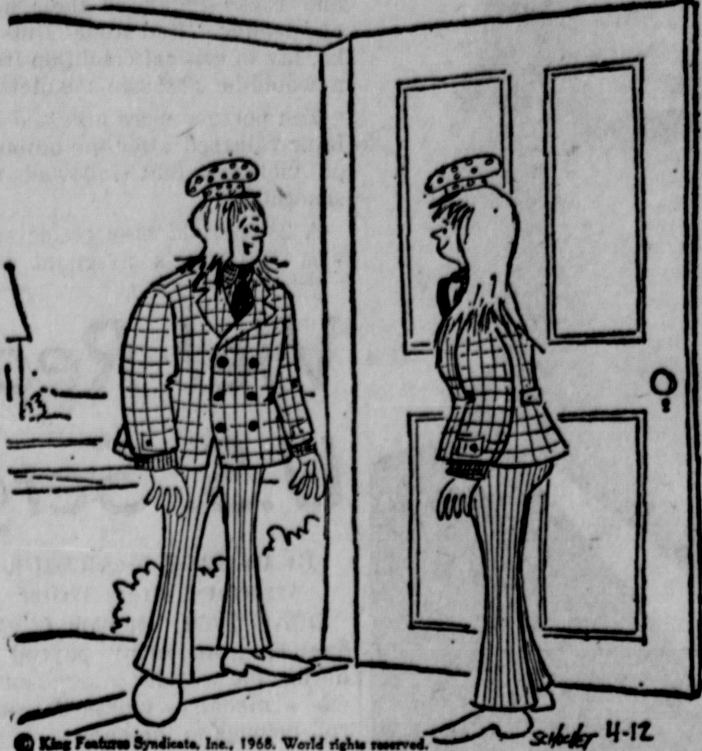

In many European nations the taxes are disguised. They are indirect. The source of revenue generally is from taxes on purchases rather than incomes. In England, for example, taxes recently were raised on the purchase of alcohol, tobacco and gasoline.

Taxes also are levied in Europe on values added to products in the manufacturing process; they are collected from excises on commodities, from customs duties and registrations.

Because of this heavy U.S. concentration on earnings taxes, the First National City Bank of New York, which played an initial role in the tax debates of the early 1960s, now feels that studies are needed to seek a broader federal tax base.

One factor that worries the bank is that American corporate taxes, the highest in the world, may damage U.S. efforts to balance its trade with Europe, which does not emphasize corporate income taxes.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two votes for him. The two candidates followed, one in each direction. Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., entered the race March 16, and McCarthys has been taunting him ever since as a tardy arrival.

And President Johnson stepped aside on March 31. Then came McCarthy's April 2 Wisconsin primary landslide, a 57 per cent share of the vote. Kennedy wasn't on the ballot there, but he will be in Indiana on May 7. And McCarthy has acknowledged the primary tests may prove more difficult to his cause.

But he insists he will wage to the end—the Democratic National Convention in Chicago—the campaign he announced on Nov. 30.

The metamorphosis began with New Hampshire's startling primary verdict on March 12, a 42 per cent vote for McCarthy, 20 of 24 Democratic convention

It was, perhaps, best signalled by McCarthy's nationwide television address from Milwaukee on April 1, delivered in his familiar low-key style.

"This effort is really no longer, if it ever was, one which was concerned simply with raising issues," McCarthy said. "It was never just an educational program, although some of the critics of my effort in the early stages suggested that that was really all that it could be."

"This is my role today, this is what I am—a candidate for the nomination of the Democratic Party for the presidency of the United States of America."

This was the man who, three months earlier, had said that if Robert Kennedy would challenge Johnson "there would be no need for me to try."

The legend that late playwright Russell Crouse made his only on-stage appearance in a one-minute, no-line walk-on in "Life With Father," is shattered by Hy Kraft, who is laboring on a book to be called "On My Way to the Theatre." Kraft reminds us correctly that the well-loved Mr. Crouse actually spoke lines in a reasonably successful newspaper play by Ward Morehouse called "Gentlemen of the Press." Brooks Atkinson wrote that his performance was "as muted as Duse."

Another critic enthused that "Crouse broke all dramatic tradition by sitting with his back to the audience and then disappearing thousands of admirers by vanishing into a telephone booth." A third reviewer (later identified as Mr. Crouse's wife) declared, "Russell Crouse gave the best back view of a city newsman ever presented in a 10-line part and in a 5-minute big emotional scene eating a ham sandwich."

Speaking of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

When a RH baby is born because of a strange complex blood typing that exists between the mother, the father, and the baby, there is risk to the health and development of the child. The condition originates before birth and is called erythroblastosis and occurs rarely in the first-born but more often in subsequent pregnancies.

The degree of severity varies. In some children it is relatively mild, in others it is severe and causes a profound anemia and jaundice, a yellow discoloration of the skin.

Much is known about the RH disorder and doctors always known in advance that such a child will be born because of repeated tests of the blood taken all throughout pregnancy.

A team of experts are ready to treat the child and when necessary actually remove all of the child's blood at birth while replacing it with normal healthy blood. Thousands of healthy children owe their lives to this remarkable exsanguination transfusion method.

On the immediate horizon there now is an RH-negative vaccine which will be given to a mother after the birth of her first child in order to protect future babies from developing this severe and dangerous blood disorder. The experimental work is so successful with the use of the new vaccine that the state of Massachusetts is beginning to manufacture and use this newly created vaccine when there is any suspicion that a RH blood situation may occur.

The extreme value of all antibiotics, penicillin and sulfa is now measured in the prolonged health of millions of people who have benefited from them. One of the most difficult problems that confronts physicians is the severe allergic reaction that follows an injection of penicillin to a patient who is unusually sensitive to it.

There are a number of helpful ways to diagnose a drug allergy. Most of these are complicated and cannot be readily performed in the doctor's office. There now is concentration on the idea that a special protein portion of penicillin may be the possible explanation for the reaction it causes in some people.

Dr. J. George Feinberg, an American working with colleagues at the Beecham Research Laboratories in Britain, believes that he now can eliminate the offending substance in the penicillin mold and purify it so that all serious side effects from penicillin may be eliminated.

Tremendous strides are also being made in learning the reasons for allergic reactions to all other drugs, foods, and inhalants that now are responsible for so many difficult allergic illnesses.

The Lennon Sisters

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Sometimes it pays to leave the old homestead, as the sisters Lennon discovered when they cut away from papa Lawrence Welk.

It wasn't easy. After all, the Lennons had been singing their close harmonies with the Welk organization since that fateful Christmas of 1955 when they first appeared with the champagne maestro. To cut away would mean a severe jolt, not only to the sisters themselves, but to their fans.

The break came last year. It wasn't complete, because the Lennons continue to sing on the Welk ABC broadcast once a month. But since last June, the girls have been more or less on their own, and their careers have changed considerably.

"We never realized we could earn this kind of money," says one of the girls.

The alteration of their status came through the management of two youthful promoters, Bob Eubanks and Steve Wolf. The girls' reasoning was explained by Wolf: "All of the sisters are married now, and they have families to consider. The time came for them to consider building up their estates and providing for the future. That meant at least a partial break with Welk, since their income was limited with his organization."

The amount of limitation has been the subject of controversy. The Lennon faction claims—without rancor—that Welk paid the girls scale salaries, or $182.50 per TV performance. Welk denies this. He told me that while he generally makes a policy of paying scale, his stars get considerably more, one way or another. "There are so many extras," he remarked.

He continues to have nothing but praise for the Lennons, and they reciprocate. "The girls will always be grateful to Lawrence," explained Wolf. "As a matter of fact, he was the one who first suggested that they take advantage of their immense popularity."

They did so in positive terms, signing for television guest appearances, state and county fairs, concert engagements and record albums with mercury. Their earnings have soared.

"The girls can average between $5,500 and $5,500 per night on the road," said Wolf. "They can make even more with fair dates. For instance, they will be getting $20,000 for three days at the New York State fair in Syracuse later this summer."

The Lennons' career has been stalled because Peggy is expecting a baby in June. However, the girls will use the time in recording an album for the Christmas trade. In August and September, they will play fairs on Casper, Wyo., to Hutchinson, Kan., and points east. Next winter they are booked for a Jackie Gleason show, two Ed Sullivan, three Hollywood Palaces, etc.

"But the big news is that ABC is planning an hour variety show to star the Lennon sisters," reported Wolf. "It will probably go on the network in January, and then it's likely that the girls won't be able to appear on the Welk show any longer."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two primaries and two candidates followed, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy wryly remarked that his Democratic campaign for the White House was taking "a controlled fall." He doesn't joke about it that way now.

For the Minnesota Democrat has experienced victory, has sampled the prospect that what once seemed a futile gesture could actually lead him to the presidency.

Where once he spoke of an effort to change the course of a Democratic administration on war in Vietnam, now McCarthy talks of making his party's race against former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the front-running candidate for the Republican nomination.

The metamorphosis began with New Hampshire's startling primary verdict on March 12: a 42 per cent vote for McCarthy, 20 of 24 Democratic convention

Now this is all very funny, for the Department of Agriculture, which is another arm of Big Brother, has recently put out a statement that half the families in America subsist on a diet that is deficient in recommended amounts of vitamins and minerals. And twenty per cent of the U.S. people eat foods that are two-thirds short of the necessary levels. How is the FDA going to direct them to the right foods?

Consulting a report put out by a third body of experts, the American Medical Association, you can get a grisly story of what happens to the average woman of child-bearing age if she eats her normal number of 2,100 calories of food a day.

This recommended number of calories would keep a male perfectly healthy. But it so happens that a child-bearing woman needs more iron than her husband. She needs twenty daily milligrams of iron, but a regimen of 2,100 calories per day contains only thirteen milligrams. The result, according to the AMA, is that ten per cent of the women of child-bearing age are anemic.

The Food and Drug Administration might counter with an argument that child-bearing women are "persons with special medical needs," but taken altogether they must add up to between a fourth and a third of the population. Nothing very special about that. If they aren't getting enough iron, the proposed Food and Drug Administration label telling people that "vitamins and minerals are supplied in abundant amounts by commonly available foods" would be a plain lie for a big portion of the human race.

In pursuit of clarification in these matters, I asked a nutritionist if a special supplement of spinach might save those anemic women. The answer shed a curious light on the FDA statement that "vitamins and minerals are supplied in abundant amounts in commonly available foods." True enough, there's a lot of iron in spinach. But the story I got is that other elements in green leafy vegetables can "lock the iron up" so that it can't be extracted for nutritive purposes. This means that spinach is a fake as a food, just as I always suspected. And Popeye, incidentally, must be getting his iron out of something else. It's probably those nails he chews.

Still seeking clarification, I asked the nutritionist, "What about liver? That has iron." Oh, yes, said my expert, you can get enough iron from three-quarters of a pound of liver a day. But if all our child-bearing women were to eat this much liver there wouldn't be any left for the males, who would soon become anemic in their turn.

My reason for going into all this is that I have an unshakable conviction that the less that governments have to do with directing people in sumptuary matters — and a lot of other matters, too — the better off everybody would be. Politicians aren't experts. They don't know how to assemble experts. They go crusading against dietary pills when the enemy is not the pill but the quack doctor. They propose a label that would direct anemic women to spinach when they should be listening to the child in the cartoon who said, "I say it's spinach, and I say the hell with it."

Big Brother, go away. I don't go much for vitamin pills, for I prefer beefsteaks. But if I want a bit of vitamin C when I feel a cold coming on, is it your business to tell me to eat oranges? I like to live in a country which pays me the compliment of assuming that I can make up my own mind.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE — We welcome letters to the editor. In order to be considered for publication, they must bear the correct name and address of the writer. Anonymous letters and those signed with the request that signatures be withheld will not be accepted for publication. Opinions expressed in this column are those of the writers and not necessarily those of The Herald.

Dear Editor:

Now that the bluish is gone from the Logan Elm hackberry, perhaps it is time to make sure that one part of the famous tree's history is not lost.

During part of its report on the development, The Herald quoted some officials as bemoaning the fact that with the pseudo-elm (the hackberry) gone, there remained no descendant of the great tree.

Not so.

In October of 1961, The Herald printed an account credited to the Associated Press which said in part:

"McEwing E. Noggle, historian for Pickaway County . . . points out that many of the smaller elms in the state park built around Logan Elm sprang from the great tree's own seed."

"The historian said a state nursery near Wooster had propagated many trees from seed taken from Logan Elm. One of them reached considerable size in the Ohio Statehouse lawn before the area was cleared for an underground parking garage."

"Another flourishes today near the U.S. Capitol in Washington D.C."

"And thousands can be found in a New Orleans city preserve."

Surely one of these offspring could be made available if anyone was seriously interested.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

THE BONA FIDE report on Fred Astaire's first screen test is still good for a laugh among play folk. It reads, "He can't act, and he's slightly bald. But he CAN dance a little."

The legend that late playwright Russell Crouse made his only on-stage appearance in a one-minute, no-line walk-on in "Life With Father," is shattered by Hy Kraft, who is laboring on a book to be called "On My Way to the Theatre." Kraft reminds us correctly that the well-loved Mr. Crouse actually spoke lines in a reasonably successful newspaper play by Ward Morehouse called "Gentlemen of the Press." Brooks Atkinson wrote that his performance was "as muted as Duse." Another critic enthused that "Crouse broke all dramatic tradition by sitting with his back to the audience and then disappearing thousands of admirers by vanishing into a telephone booth." A third reviewer (later identified as Mr. Crouse's wife) declared, "Russell Crouse gave the best back view of a city newsman ever presented in a 10-line part and in a 5-minute big emotional scene eating a ham sandwich."

At a Park Avenue club, an elderly fop buttonholed a younger member, to exclaim, "Have I told you about my new granddaughter?" To which the younger member, tearing loose, replied fervently, "No—and I want you to know I appreciate it."

Speaking of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

When a RH baby is born because of a strange complex blood typing that exists between the mother, the father, and the baby, there is risk to the health and development of the child. The condition originates before birth and is called erythroblastosis and occurs rarely in the first-born but more often in subsequent pregnancies.

The degree of severity varies. In some children it is relatively mild, in others it is severe and causes a profound anemia and jaundice, a yellow discoloration of the skin.

Much is known about the RH disorder and doctors always known in advance that such a child will be born because of repeated tests of the blood taken all throughout pregnancy.

A team of experts are ready to treat the child and when necessary actually remove all of the child's blood at birth while replacing it with normal healthy blood. Thousands of healthy children owe their lives to this remarkable exsanguination transfusion method.

On the immediate horizon there now is an RH-negative vaccine which will be given to a mother after the birth of her first child in order to protect future babies from developing this severe and dangerous blood disorder. The experimental work is so successful with the use of the new vaccine that the state of Massachusetts is beginning to manufacture and use this newly created vaccine when there is any suspicion that a RH blood situation may occur.

The extreme value of all antibiotics, penicillin and sulfa is now measured in the prolonged health of millions of people who have benefited from them. One of the most difficult problems that confronts physicians is the severe allergic reaction that follows an injection of penicillin to a patient who is unusually sensitive to it.

There are a number of helpful ways to diagnose a drug allergy. Most of these are complicated and cannot be readily performed in the doctor's office. There now is concentration on the idea that a special protein portion of penicillin may be the possible explanation for the reaction it causes in some people.

Russian girls can wear miniskirts, rule Soviet bureaucrats, but they also must wear the same old long maxisuits beneath them. This should save Moscow dressmaking repair shops a lot of leg work.

The ruling, it seems, will enable Russian girls to sport western style dresses—with Soviet undertones.

See where that horse Teuton II won at Gaidstream, paying $135.80 for $2. For those who bet on him — a real Dutch treat!

The U.S. House of Representatives Agriculture poultry inspection bill. What's this? — a new breed of bird watchers coming up?

There was a new fad in Circleville High School. Senior girls wore safety pins around their neck. Each safety pin stood for a remaining day of school. The smaller pins were connected to one large pin which symbolized graduation day. The pins were worn as necklaces, then as bracelets and finally as pins on waist belts.

The Lennon Sisters

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Sometimes it pays to leave the old homestead, as the sisters Lennon discovered when they cut away from papa Lawrence Welk.

It wasn't easy. After all, the Lennons had been singing their close harmonies with the Weik organization since that fateful Christmas of 1955 when they first appeared with the champagne maestro. To cut away would mean a severe jolt, not only to the sisters themselves, but to their fans.

The break came last year. It wasn't complete, because the Lennons continue to sing on the Welk ABC broadcast once a month. But since last June, the girls have been more or less on their own, and their careers have changed considerably.

"We never realized we could earn this kind of money," says one of the girls.

The alteration of their status came through the management of two youthful promoters. Bob Eubanks and Steve Wolf. The girls' reasoning was explained by Wolf: "All of the sisters are married now, and they have families to consider. The time came for them to consider building up their estates and providing for the future. That meant at least a partial break with Welk, since their income was limited with his organization."

The amount of limitation has been the subject of controversy.

The Lennon faction claims—without rancor—that Welk paid the girls scale salaries, or $182.50 per TV performance. Welk denies this. He told me that while he generally makes a policy of paying scale, his stars get considerably more, one way or another. "There are so many extras," he remarked.

He continues to have nothing but praise for the Lennons, and they reciprocate. "The girls will always be grateful to Lawrence," explained Wolf. "As a matter of fact, he was the one who first suggested that they take advantage of their immense popularity."

They did so in positive terms, signing for television guest appearances, state and county fairs, concert engagements and record albums with mercury. Their earnings have soared.

"The girls can average between $3,500 and $5,500 per night on the road," said Wolf. "They can make even more with fair dates. For instance, they will be getting $20,000 for three days at the New York State fair in Syracuse later this summer."

The Lennons' career has been stunted because Peggy is expecting a baby in June. However, the girls will use the time in recording an album for the Christmas trade. In August and September, they will play fairs from Casper, Wyo., to Hutchinson, Kan., and points east. Next winter they are booked for a Jackie Gleason show, two Ed Sullivan, three Hollywood Palaces, etc.

"But the big news is that ABC is planning an hour variety show to star the Lennon sisters," reported Wolf. "It will probably go on the network in January, and then it's likely that the girls won't be able to appear on the Welk show any longer."

Youth Commission Cancels Seminar
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Youth Commission blames "unsettled local conditions" for its cancellation of a seminar on Youth Opportunities summer programming which was to have been held here April 16-19. The commission said conditions in some Ohio cities had made it uncertain if municipal officials and speakers could attend the seminar.

HALLELUJAH

Eddie was the smallest one in the choir today. He stood at the end of the front row, stretched tall as he could, and sang with his whole heart.

I looked up at his round freckled boy-face and wondered what he was thinking as the Easter anthem rose in crescendo and blessed the April air. Were his thoughts on chocolate bunnies and rainbow-colored eggs, or on the stirring story he was singing — "He is not here, but is risen"?

Of one thing I am certain. When he is grown and thinks of Eastertime back home, it won't be the candy eggs and Easter baskets he'll remember; but the smell of lilies at the chancel rail, the joy of joining his voice to a Hallelujah chorus.

Give your child a lifetime gift. Celebrate special Sundays and every Sunday by going to your church and taking him with you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .

. . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Youth Commission Cancels Seminar

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Youth Commission has been held here April 16-19. The commission said conditions in some Ohio cities had made it uncertain if municipal officials and speakers could attend the seminar.

HALLELUJAH

Eddie was the smallest one in the choir today. He stood at the end of the front row, stretched tall as he could, and sang with his whole heart.

I looked up at his round freckled boy-face and wondered what he was thinking as the Easter anthem rose in crescendo and blessed the April air. Were his thoughts on chocolate bunnies and rainbow-colored eggs, or on the stirring story he was singing — "He is not here, but is risen"?

Of one thing I am certain. When he is grown and thinks of Eastertime back home, it won't be the candy eggs and Easter baskets he'll remember; but the smell of lilies at the chancel rail, the joy of joining his voice to a Hallelujah chorus.

Give your child a lifetime gift. Celebrate special Sundays and every Sunday by going to your church and taking him with you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Cases of five 18-year-old students charged with stealing firearms in Athens will be turned over to the May term of the Athens County Grand Jury.

The five, two students from Ohio University and three from the University of Cincinnati, were arrested after the theft last week of seven target rifles worth a total of $1,200 from OU's Peden stadium and the theft of two other weapons from an Athens store window.

University of Cincinnati students James Herbert of Washington Court House, Shelby Harbour of Huntington, W. Va., and Marty Baeker of Detroit, pleaded guilty to charges of malicious entry and grand larceny.

OU student James Schaefer of Canton pleaded guilty to receiving stolen property. Scott Barger of Washington Court House, also an Ohio U. student, pleaded guilty to two counts of malicious entry and two counts of grand larceny.

Police said the guns had been traded for other weapons in gunshops in the Akron and Canton area.

Visage of Christ

In the World of Christianity at this time of the year, one of the most fascinating questions is raised again. What did Jesus of Nazareth — the Savior — really look like?

In the very early days of Christianity, there were portrayals of Christ's face on the walls of the catacombs in Rome where his many followers met to worship in secret. Among the earliest painting of the Maste is one that has been attributed to St. Luke, author of the third Gospel.

A little-known document in the Vatican Library purports to describe Jesus as he appeared in Judea. This startling letter — sent to the Roman Senate — was written by Publius Lentulus, a Roman proconsul in Judea and also a predecessor and friend of Pontius Pilate. In it, Lentulus tells the Roman Senate that Jesus was a man of noble and handsomely proportioned features and build. His hair was a tawny color and golden at the root. The beard was full, the same color as his hair and his eyes an extremely brilliant blue.

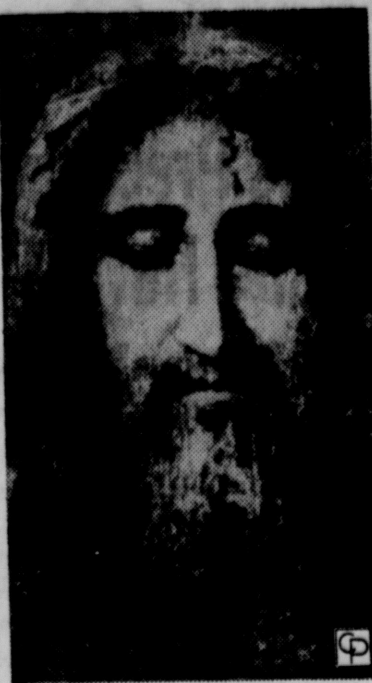

The image of Jesus is preserved in two outstanding holy relics. One of these, the Veil of Veronica, was brought to the Vatican during the 12th century. Its origin is the road to Calvary when Christ, bearing the heavy cross, stumbled three times. Veronica, a devoutly pious woman of Jerusalem, ran to his aid in deep compassion and mercy and pressed a linen cloth to his feverish face. An imprint of Christ's features in sweat and blood was outlined on the cloth. It showed a man with a broad brow, high cheekbones and a sharp, bearded chin.

The other famous relic is the Shroud of Turin believed by many Christians to be the cloth in which Christ was immediately wrapped for burial after the Crucifixion.

In 1898, a photographer discovered that the 14-foot winding sheet had the qualities of a photographic negative. On his plate, the markings were revealed to be the figure of a man who had been scourged and crowned with thorns that had punctured the brow and head. The man in the shroud also had a spear cut in his side and the feet and wrists bore imprints of nails which had punctured through.

On both the front and back imprints on the cloth, the markings show that it was a man who had been crucified in exactly the same way as Jesus. He was slightly more than six feet tall and weighed around 185 pounds. Bearded and with long hair, he had a majestic face remarkably similar to the many conventional paintings of Christ in churches, private collections and art museums around the world.

The holy shroud has been given exhaustive tests. Blood stains, cloth texture and its age have been authenticated. Microscopic examinations have failed to reveal any fakes or false brush marks of any kind. Jesus knew that men see with their eyes only what they want

Youngstown Gets Back Near Normal

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — In the wake of racial disturbances, Youngstown Mayor Anthony B. Flak met with Negro leaders Thursday and pledged City Hall support to aid the unemployed.

Flak said the lines of communications between City Hall, the police and troubled neighborhoods would be improved. Negro spokesmen said they would campaign against violence in the troubled areas.

The mayor said the administration would form a job council with local industries and the Ohio Bureau of Employment Services to aid those out of work.

Police reported things "back to normal" after three nights of racial disorders. About 600 National Guardsmen are still on duty but Flak said the number may be reduced soon.

Developments would dictate when, the mayor added. A general curfew was lifted Thursday and a ban on liquor sales in Youngstown and Mahoning County ended. Flak said, however, that those under 18 had to be off the streets by 11 p.m.

William Grady, 54, a policeman shot when the disturbances started Monday, was reported in poor condition at South Side Hospital. Another policeman was hit, but not seriously injured.

A Youngstown man has been charged in the shootings.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Penny Pinching Dad Angering Mom

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I get along pretty well except when it comes to money. He drives a truck and averages about $250 a week, but if you ever saw our furniture you would think we were on welfare.

He gives me $20 a week for groceries. We have three growing children, and if it weren't for my garden and the freezer I don't know what I'd do.

My husband banks every penny he gets his hands on. Our oldest is ten and wants to take piano lessons, but my husband says we can't afford it. Our home is paid for, we don't owe a dime and we have over $10,000 in the bank. Please put something in your column to help me. He reads it and thinks you're smart.

TURNING GRAY

DEAR TURNING: It may take more than a few words from me to part your husband from his money. The poor man seems to be obsessed with the fear of being broke. (Probably due to a hungry childhood and a good memory.) I don't recommend extravagance, but a man owes it to his family to provide them with as fine an education (musical, too) and as pleasant surroundings as he can afford.

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who is always looking for dirt in somebody else's house. The minute she walks in she looks in the corners for a speck of dust that might have been overlooked.

I have even seen her open closets, cupboards and drawers. It's a habit. She looks behind the davenport, under rugs and once I saw her look behind somebody's washing machine.

The minute she leaves someone's house, she says, "My, she's a terrible housekeeper." Or, "Not a trace of dirt—she must have just cleaned."

What is the matter with a person like that?

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: People who are constantly searching for flaws, imperfections and signs of around others, do so in order to avoid seeing their own. Pray for them.

DEAR ABBY: We have a foreign exchange student from an Asian country living with us.

We were laughing hysterically while reading the letter in your column about the man who gave a "birthday" party every year for his wife who had been dead for twelve years. (He said he'd invite his friends for a regular "birthday party," after which they'd all go out to the cemetery to "talk" to Ruby and leave her a piece of birthday cake.)

Our Asian friend couldn't see anything funny about that. He said it's an old Oriental custom to visit the cemetery once a year, and take along some food for their ancestors to "eat."

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I get along pretty well except when it comes to money. He drives a truck and averages about $250 a week, but if you ever saw our furniture you would think we were on welfare.

He gives me $20 a week for groceries. We have three growing children, and if it weren't for my garden and the freezer I don't know what I'd do.

My husband banks every penny he gets his hands on. Our oldest is ten and wants to take piano lessons, but my husband says we can't afford it. Our home is paid for, we don't owe a dime and we have over $10,000 in the bank. Please put something in your column to help me. He reads it and thinks you're smart.

TURNING GRAY
DEAR TURNING: It may take more than a few words from me to part your husband from his money. The poor man seems to be obsessed with the fear of being broke. (Probably due to a hungry childhood and a good memory.) I don't recommend extravagance, but a man owes it to his family to provide them with as fine an education (musical, too) and as pleasant surroundings as he can afford.

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who is always looking for dirt in somebody else's house. The minute she walks in she looks in the corners for a speck of dust that might have been overlooked.

I have even seen her open closets, cupboards and drawers. It's a habit. She looks behind the davenport, under rugs and once I saw her look behind somebody's washing machine.

The minute she leaves someone's house, she says, "My, she's a terrible housekeeper." Or, "Not a trace of dirt—she must have just cleaned."

What is the matter with a person like that?

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: People who are constantly searching for flaws, imperfections and signs of around others, do so in order to avoid seeing their own. Pray for them.

DEAR ABBY: We have a foreign exchange student from an Asian country living with us.

We were laughing hysterically while reading the letter in your column about the man who gave a "birthday" party every year for his wife who had been dead for twelve years. (He said he'd invite his friends for a regular "birthday party," after which they'd all go out to the cemetery to "talk" to Ruby and leave her a piece of birthday cake.)

Our Asian friend couldn't see anything funny about that. He said it's an old Oriental custom to visit the cemetery once a year, and take along some food for their ancestors to "eat."

CHS Principal's office has three new faces. They are Valerie Valentine, Sandra Rich and Debbie Shires.

In her spare time, Valerie enjoys playing the piano and listening to the radio. She plans to attend college after graduation.

RFK, Nixon Lead Polls In Government Classes

By DARYL BROWN

In this election year there is much speculation as to the choices that will be made by each party for its candidate for the presidency.

Front runners for the Democratic Party are McCarthy, Kennedy and Humphrey. The GOP seems to be leaning heavily toward Nixon, although Reagan has showed well and some people are still trying to push Rockefeller into the political calvacade.

Republicans seem headed for solidarity unless Nixon doesn't get the nod and a few of his friends go away mad. That group would probably be small in number though and would not cause a major party split, although it could hurt in certain sections of the country.

The Democrats seem in for a hard battle unless the Kennedy money and the political machinery it can buy can suck in enough votes before convention time. With backers, Humphrey could be very tough. People are looking at him for the first time as a potential president and quite a few like what they see. Don't count McCarthy out, though. He's a hard worker and is well liked. It was he, remember, that started the massive exodus from the Johnson merry-go-round.

Of course there is always that corn pone king himself, George Wallace, who a lot of people have overlooked with all the mad scrambling going on elsewhere. He will still carry some states and may have a good deal more to do with who gets the big office he would like than a lot of people care to admit.

Many of the candidates look toward youth for support whether it be in actual votes or influence upon other voters or business and labor. CHS students have a mind of their own, too, and some 105 government class students responded in the following way when asked their choice for President: Kennedy, 31 votes, Humphrey, 19; McCarthy, 17; Nixon, 22; Rockefeller, 9; Reagan, 2; Wallace, 5.

Smile Can Lift Spirits

By SUSAN DEMJEN

"Smile and the world smiles with you," and so the famous lyrics go. A smile is worth a thousand words. Think about it. A very simple smile from a passer-by can lift a problem like a balloon. A smile can mean "thank you," or it can mean "I understand." It can also mean "I like you" and "I enjoy you." Sometimes a smile can bring happiness for someone or it can bring comfort.

A person doesn't lose any energy by smiling. In fact, it takes less facial muscles to smile than to frown. Everyone at CHS should smile. The reward is a smile in return from someone else.

Seniors have only 28 more school days left!

CHS students started Easter vacation yesterday.

Home Ec I students will begin spring sewing projects after Easter.

Birds do not always fly straight as an arrow to summer territories from their wintering grounds. The migrants take detours to avoid mountains, deserts and bodies of water.

Days Preceding Easter Have Religious Value

Easter is considered the holiest of all Christian holidays. The word Easter was borrowed from the Teutonic Festival of the Spring Sun, Easter. We now celebrate Easter on the first Sunday following the full moon which appears on or after the vernal equinox, about March 21.

Lent, the forty days fast in remembrance of Christ's fast in the desert, precedes Easter. Originally it began on Sunday but Pope Gregory set the beginning of Lent back four days to the preceding Wednesday to make the period of fasting exactly forty week days. So began the observance of Ash Wednesday initiating the season of repentance, and of preparation for Good Friday and Easter, Christ's death and Resurrection.

Good Friday is now observed as a legal holiday in eleven states. Many churches now hold a three hour service on Friday in remembrance of Christ's crucifixion and Sunday's Easter Service for his resurrection.

Mile Runners Receive Track Team Spotlight

Tom Yeatts, 17, is enrolled in the classical course and is a junior at CHS. He resides at 507 N. Pickaway St., with his mother, Mrs. Hazel M. Yeatts. Tom goes to the First Methodist Church and is a member of MYF. He is also an active member of the CHS Stooze Club.

TOM YEATTS

In track, Tom runs in the 440-yard dash, the mile relay and 880-yard relay. When asked how he thinks the team needs to be improved and how this year's team looks he replied, "Over the past few weeks we have been practicing, our attitude has improved and we are starting to get into decent shape for our events. I also feel that we have a good team this year and I think we are going to surprise some teams in taking the SCOL for the third time."

Her duties as an office girl include typing up the absence list and tests. "I like being an office helper because it is a very interesting job. If you plan to go into office work, this helps you a lot."

Debbie is active in the Volunteers. She likes to swim and read. Her future plans are to become a secretary.

Chocolate Eggs and Bunnies Part of Easter Tradition

By ROZANNE MCCAIN and JONNIE THOMAS

Easter is the time of year for chocolate bunnies and eggs. It seems natural enough for us to eat these at the accustomed time, but do we ever stop to think why? Why should we have bunnies, of all things, at Easter? There is a reason.

The bunny is really a hare and according to legend of far-off Egypt the hare is a symbol of the moon. Everyone knows that the date of Easter is determined by the moon. In the year AD 325 Constantine had the uncertain date of this holy day settled for all time by taking the matter before the Council of Nicea. The worthy and wise ones of the Council decided that Easter should fall upon the first Sunday following the first full moon after the Twenty-first day of March. And so the hare, or bunny, has come into prominence because of the moon's importance in reckoning Easter.

As for Easter eggs, they are closely bound up with Easter. The egg is the symbol of new life, and that probably is why it has come to hold so much significance at the commemoration of the Resurrection. For hundreds of years dyed eggs have been exchanged as a token of peace at Easter. Egg games and egg races have not lost their popularity even today. American children often join in egg rolling contests on Easter Monday.

Lambert Is Contender on CHS Tiger '9'

The CHS baseball team has been chosen. The team has ten returning lettermen and seven rookies, along with a taxi squad which will add great depth to this year's team.

Out of the returning lettermen, three are all-league boys. This year's team consists of seniors, Tom Cassill, Rick Congrove, Bob Dean, George Hill, Craig Lambert, Jeff Steele, Bob Wallis, Nick Wickerham, Tom Wright; juniors, Frank Carter, Don Cordle, Mike Johnson, Rick Sims, Ed Wells; Sophomores, Ty Ankrom, Mike Hill and Bill Thomas.

At the end of last year the team was third in the SCOL standings. This year they will be shooting for the number one spot in the league.

Craig Lambert is one of the experienced lettermen returning to this year's base all squad. Craig's position is that of catcher on the team.

Dodgers Lose Al Ferrara

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Six days ago, the Los Angeles Dodgers had high hopes of contending for the National League baseball championship. Now, after only two games, things are so bad that they can only get better.

A sudden run of bad luck struck the Dodgers again Thursday night when left fielder Al Ferrara was sidelined for three months with a fracture and a dislocation of his left ankle. Loss of the big right-handed hitter further compounds the Dodgers' main weakness, a vulnerability against lefthanded pitching.

Billy Casper Cavorts Way To Open Lead

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Billy Casper, golf's quiet man, suddenly turned showman en route to the first round lead in the Masters Golf Tournament.

Casper—for years a rather sombre figure—capered and cavorted over the windy, rolling acres of the Augusta National Golf Course Thursday on the way to a four-under-par 68.

That gave him a one-stroke lead over an international quintet including pre-tourney favorite Jack Nicklaus, British open champion Roberto de Vicenzo of Argentina, tough, young Tony Jacklin of England, Australian Bruce Devlin and tour regular Tommy Aaron.

Tied at 70 were Bob Goalby, Kermit Zarley and Jerry Pittman. PGA champion Don January and Hideyo Sugimoto, six-time Japanese open champion, and amateur Vinnie Giles were in a group of seven at 71 while defending champion Gary Brewer, Arnold Palmer and South African Gary Player were among the seven tied at par 72.

Indiana Protests
Ruling in Medley
GREENVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Six more events were on the AAU's National Shortcourse Swimming Championship agenda today, but more interest was centered on a protest filed by Indiana University after one of Friday night's events.

Indiana's 400-yard medley relay team set a new record of 3:28.04 Friday night, only to be disqualified by a sophisticated electronic judging and timing machine.

The transistorized timer ruled that Indiana's fourth, or anchor man, left the starting block too soon.

Spartak Defeated
LYON, France (AP) — Real Madrid defeated Spartak of Brno, Czechoslovakia, in the final of the European Basketball Cup Tournament Thursday 98-95.

Tiger Coach Chuck Hill started Bob Dean on the mound, but lifted him in the fourth inning after Greenfield McClain had batted five hits off him scoring five runs. Don Cordle was the second Circleville hurler, allowing four hits, fanning two and walking one.

He was relieved by Nick Wickerham who whiffed three and was touched for three hits.

CIRCLEVILLE had seven errors in the game, contributing to four of the runs scored by Greenfield. The visiting McClain team had only two errors.

Extra base hits by Greenfield included a double by Kirk Thompson, one by Ron Coleman and two by John Losey. Losey and Cleman led the hitting parade with three hits each. Thompson had two.

The winners scored twice in the initial inning. They were blanked for two frames by Dean but added three runs in the third and two in the fifth to their total. In the sixth they were held scoreless again but tallied three in the top half of the seventh.

Circleville had eight base runners reach first base safely but nobody got further than third base in the game.

The next game for Circleville is at Miami Trace Wednesday. The Tigers have a 1-1 record for the season. Greenfield now boasts a 5-0 record.

Circleville has had three games rained out this season.

Killebrew Homers Bring Minnesota Twins 5-4 Win

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim Merritt was having trouble with his pivot and suddenly Minnesota Twins were in trouble. But there was nothing wrong with Harmon Killebrew's swing and suddenly the Twins were out of trouble.

Killebrew's second homer in as many days snapped a tie and gave the Twins a 5-4 victory over Washington Thursday night after a shaky start by Merritt allowed the Senators four runs in the first inning.

Minnesota pitching coach Early Wynn detected a hitch in the young left-hander's pivot when delivering the ball and quickly got him to correct the flaw. After that, Merritt allowed just two hits and waited for the Twins' hitters to catch up.

In the only other American League games Thursday, Detroit edged Boston 4-3 and California topped Cleveland 7-5.

In the National League, Pittsburgh outlasted San Francisco 3-1 in 15 innings, Chicago crushed Cincinnati 10-3, Houston downed Philadelphia 7-3, St. Louis smacked Atlanta 10-3 and New York shut out Los Angeles 4-0.

The Twins started catching up to the Senators in the third inning when Ken McMullen's two-out throwing error opened the gates to three runs.

In the fifth, Frank Howard muffed a fly ball by Rod Carew for a two-base error and Carew eventually scored the tying run on a wild pitch. Then Killebrew sent one 381 feet into the left field bullpen in left center.

The Tigers beat the Red Sox on Gates Brown's pinch-hit homer in the ninth inning. Dick

McAuliffe homered for Detroit in the first inning and Bill Freehan hit one out in the second, staking the igers to a 3-0 lead.

But in the sixth, Joe Lahoud, the rookie who is taking Tony Conigliaro's place in right field, and Rico Petrocelli tied the score at 3-3 with successive homers off Denny McLain and that's the way things stayed until Brown hit his homer.

Chuck Hinton's homer in the seventh tied the Angels with the Indians and Bob Rodgers followed wit a single that drove in Roger Repoz with the winning run.

Sam McDowell, the Cleveland starter, hit Don Mincher in the face with a pitch in the third inning and the bit Angel slugger was carried from the field in a stretcher. Five stitches were taken before he was sent to the hospital for observation.

Indiana Protests Ruling in Medley

GREENVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Six more events were on the AAU's National Shortcourse Swimming Championship agenda today, but more interest was centered on a protest filed by Indiana University after one of Friday night's events.

Indiana's 400-yard medley relay team set a new record of 3:28.04 Friday night, only to be disqualified by a sophisticated electronic judging and timing machine.

The transistorized timer ruled that Indiana's fourth, or anchor man, left the starting block too soon.

Spartak Defeated

LYON, France (AP) — Real Madrid defeated Spartak of Brno, Czechoslovakia, in the final of the European Basketball Cup Tournament Thursday 98-95.

Tiger Coach Chuck Hill started Bob Dean on the mound, but lifted him in the fourth inning after Greenfield McClain had banded five hits off him scoring five runs. Don Cordle was the second Circleville hurler, allowing four hits, fanning two and walking one.

He was relieved by Nick Wickerham who whiffed three and was touched for three hits.

CIRCLEVILLE had seven errors in the game, contributing to four of the runs scored by Greenfield. The visiting McClain team had only two errors.

Extra base hits by Greenfield included a double by Kirk Thompson, one by Ron Coleman and two by John Losey. Losey and Cleman led the hitting parade with three hits each. Thompson had two.

The winners scored twice in the initial inning. They were blanked for two frames by Dean but added three runs in the third and two in the fifth to their total. In the sixth they were held scoreless again but tallied three in the top half of the seventh.

Circleville had eight base runners reach first base safely but nobody got further than third base in the game.

The next game for Circleville is at Miami Trace Wednesday.

The Tigers have a 1-1 record for the season. Greenfield now boasts a 5-0 record.

Circleville has had three games rained out this season.

Killebrew Homers Bring Minnesota Twins 5-4 Win

By RON RAPOPORT

Associated Press Sports Writer Jim Merritt was having trouble with his pivot and suddenly Minnesota Twins were in trouble. But there was nothing wrong with Harmon Killebrew's swing and suddenly the Twins were out of trouble.

Killebrew's second homer in as many days snapped a tie and gave the Twins a 5-4 victory over Washington Thursday night after a shaky start by Merritt allowed the Senators four runs in the first inning.

Minnesota pitching coach Early Wynn detected a hitch in the young left-hander's pivot when delivering the ball and quickly got him to correct the flaw. After that, Merritt allowed just two hits and waited for the Twins' hitters to catch up.

In the only other American League games Thursday, Detroit edged Boston 4-3 and California topped Cleveland 7-5.

In the National League, Pittsburgh outlasted San Francisco 3-1 in 15 innings, Chicago crushed Cincinnati 10-3, Houston downed Philadelphia 7-3, St. Louis smacked Atlanta 10-3 and New York shut out Los Angeles 4-0.

The Twins started catching up to the Senators in the third inning when Ken McMullen's two-out throwing error opened the gates to three runs.

In the fifth, Frank Howard muffed a fly ball by Rod Carew for a two-base error and Carew eventually scored the tying run on a wild pitch. Then Killebrew sent one 381 feet into the left field bullpen in left center.

The Tigers beat the Red Sox on Gates Brown's pinch-hit homer in the ninth inning. Dick

McAuliffe homered for Detroit in the first inning and Bill Freehan hit one out in the second, staking the igers to a 3-0 lead.

But in the sixth, Joe Lahoud, the rookie who is taking Tony Conigliaro's place in right field, and Rico Petrocelli tied the score at 3-3 with successive homers off Denny McLain and that's the way things stayed until Brown hit his homer.

Chuck Hinton's homer in the seventh tied the Angels with the Indians and Bob Rodgers followed wit a single that drove in Roger Repoz with the winning run.

Sam McDowell, the Cleveland starter, hit Don Mincher in the face with a pitch in the third inning and the bit Angel slugger was carried from the field in a stretcher. Five stitches were taken before he was sent to the hospital for observation.

Rousing New Musical Play Is About George M. Cohan

By WILLIAM GLOVER
AP Drama Critic

NEW YORK (AP)—A rousing musical about one of Broadway's all-time stars, George M. Cohan, premiered Wednesday night at the Palace theater.

"George M!" is a show that rollicks with exuberant dancing, overflows with melody and spotlights a pint sized talent giant named Joel Grey.

Anyone with fond nostalgia for, or youthful curiosity about bygone showbiz grandeur will revel in the headlong melange of biographical bits and vaudeville turns, all done up with engaging sentimental sincerity.

The story line, a collaboration by Michael Stewart with John and Fran Pascal, has been deftly devised. Backstage true life narratives brim with inherent risks, but here the cradle to glory and wistful ending narrative never obtrudes on the entertainment values.

All of Cohan's greatest hits are included, with some lyric revisions by Mary Cohan, his daughter. How can a show go wrong with such a variety: "So Long, Mary," "Nellie Kelly," "You're a Grand Old Flag," "Over There" and "Give My Regards to Broadway."

As the cocky hero, Grey performs with mercurial magnificence. The surrounding company, in vivacious support under the general supervision and choreographic direction of Joe Layton acts as though variety was still in its glory era.

Particular standouts are Jacqueline Alloway, stopping the show with "Mary"; Gene Castle, a dancing dervish; Jamie Donnelly and Jill O'Hara as Cohan's wives.

Lunar Eclipse To Be Visible Here Tonight

NEW YORK (AP) — If the weather is clear a total eclipse of the moon tonight and early Saturday will be visible in nearly all parts of North and South America. The eclipse will be total for about 50 minutes.

The full moon will enter the shadow of the earth at 10:10 p.m. (EST) and have a coppery red, translucent appearance, as astronomers at the American Museum-Hayden Planetarium say.

The first part of the spectacle will be a dark shadow on the moon's upper left edge. The shadow, moving gradually across the face of the moon, will cover it completely by 11:22 p.m. Light will begin to appear along the left edge of the moon at 12:12 a.m. and the eclipse will gradually ebb.

A total lunar eclipse occurs only when a full moon, the light-giving sun and the earth are in a direct line.

Subscribers Missed Joke

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP) — The Burlington Free Press published a story on April 1 that the telephone company would use high pressure air hoses to blow dust from telephone lines and advised homeowners to cover their phones with cloths or paper sacks. Below the story "April Fool" was printed in big letters.

But the next day a school-teacher said she was late for school because she had to cover her telephones and a secretary said she had trouble covering her wall phone but finally wrapped it in a pillow case.

Red Gains In Vietnam Are Shown

'Secure Areas' Are Now Listed As 'Contested'

SAIGON (AP) — The Communist Tet offensive robbed a million South Vietnamese of security, official U.S. statistics showed today. Millions of others are living in areas with less security than before.

The figures, compiled by computer with information from South Vietnam's cities and 12,736 hamlets, also showed that the Viet Cong brought 326,000 more people under total control. Hundreds of thousands of persons who formerly lived in secure areas now live in areas classed as "contested."

The statistics are those of the U.S. Embassy's Hamlet Evaluation System—HES—which has been providing computer analyses of security in South Vietnam since last December.

The HES analysis showed 61 per cent of South Vietnam's 17.2 million people living in secure areas on March 31. This compares with 67.2 per cent immediately before the Tet offensive, a drop of 6.2 per cent and the lowest in more than a year.

The population living in contested areas grew from 16.3 per cent to 20.7. Now under Viet Cong control are 18.3 per cent of the population compared with 16.4 per cent before Tet.

This means that 1,093,000 persons who formerly lived in secure areas are now in contested or Viet Cong areas. The number of people in secure areas dropped from 11.5 million to 10.4 million. The number of people in Viet Cong-controlled areas jumped from 2.8 million pre-Tet to 3.1 million March 31.

There were 5,331 secure hamlets before Tet and 4,559 at the end of March. The number of contested hamlets went from 3,593 to 4,084. Viet Cong control expanded from 3,838 hamlets to a total of 4,093.

U.S. officials say the pacification program "is really back on track." They said that 545 of the 629 pacification teams—or 87 per cent—are back in villages and hamlets.

Perhaps five billion prairie dogs scampered about the Great Plains a century ago.

Hogs Slain, Buried Near Bellefontaine

NFO Member Says Another Shoot Set Near Columbus

BELLEFONTAINE, Ohio (AP)—Members of the National Farmers Organization plan to stick to their guns and keep on shooting and burying hogs in efforts to increase farm-to-market pork prices.

"It looks like there's going to be more and more hog shoots," says John Shoots, a Bellefontaine area farmer on whose farm about 550 hogs were destroyed Thursday.

The decision to continue the withholding action came Thursday night when about 300 local farmers learned through a national NFO report that major packers were refusing to meet their price demands.

"The big packers haven't yielded yet," Shoots said, commenting on the report.

Tentatively, according to Shoots, more hogs probably will be slaughtered sometime next week at a location in the Columbus area.

Shoots himself is a dairy man and does not raise hogs, although he is active in the NFO and took part in last year's milk withholding action.

Hogs were trucked into Shoots' farm from several counties Thursday.

The animals were shot in a 50-yard-long trench and their throats cut before being buried.

The number, however, was a little below the figure that the NFO had anticipated.

The NFO had set a midnight Wednesday deadline for packers to slaughter the hogs free for distribution to the poor as was done last week in Northern Ohio. But nothing materialized.

ICC Probes Laos Fight

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Indian and Canadian members of the International Control Commission (ICC) flew to southern Laos today to visit areas where Laotian government troops are reported battling Communist forces.

The Polish member of the three-nation commission refused to go with the party because the trip was neither requested nor approved by the Communist Pathet Lao.

The ICC team was scheduled to visit Attapeu Airport. Reports from the 4th Military Region at Pakse said Communist forces shelled the airport early today with 82mm mortars and 57mm recoilless rifles, then launched a ground attack.

Informed sources said government troops repulsed the attack. There was no report of casualties.

Ships Ice Cream To White House

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Earl Swensen, ice cream shop proprietor, says he is shipping six gallons of butterscotch ice cream by air to the White House as ordered.

Butterscotch is the flavor of the ice cream cone Lynda Bird Robb was eating when she and her Marine captain husband, Charles, visited San Francisco last month. A conductor ejected the couple from a cable car, apparently afraid the ice cream would drip.

Swensen wrote Lynda Bird, thanking her for her patronage and the six gallon order followed.
